

Bloodsuckers, Fat Horse
Not Like Bill Sykes
Tiresome Spirit World
An Automobile Research

By Arthur Brisbane

Copyright, 1928, by Star Co.
IT MAY COMFORT farmers to know that banks will do well in 1928, whatever may happen to farmers.

Money in New York yesterday cost 8 per cent, even when borrowed on first class securities with a big margin of safety.

Bank stocks that have been able to pay as much as 100 per cent a year should do better, possibly 200 per cent.

Bloodsuckers are not good for a fat horse, but a fat horse is a fine thing for bloodsuckers. And the financial bloodsuckers have a good fat horse in the present state of prosperity.

Secretary Mellon knows that dear money is expensive. Yesterday he advertised $25,000,000 in United States treasury certificates, bearing 4 1/2 per cent interest, saying, "This price will yield corporations the equivalent of 8 1/2 per cent, as compared to a taxable investment."

That's pleasant for the corporations and others getting such an investment with the United States back of it. Mr. Mellon expected to sell those certificates on a 2 1/2 per cent basis. Unusually interest rates, encouraged by the Federal Reserve, compel the United States Treasury to pay $25,000 a year more on each loan.

Governor Smith could investigate the conditions of wholesale money in New York. He can't meddle with national banks on the Federal Reserve, but he might find out who is promoting money, that costs investors in securities about $12,000,000 a year in New York city.

Crime in the days of Bill Sykes was a haphazard occupation, not profitable. It's a "business" now, well organized, with profits running into hundreds of millions a year.

It is so well organized to Chicago, that according to the public prosecutor, gangsters have "tapped" the grand jury room and are able to give their lawyers full information in advance; most useful.

Conan Doyle reports a nice long talk with Conrad, author of sea stories. Mr. Conrad wants to come back and deal with human beings again. Just now he is in "the spirit world" and is restless. No wonder.

An active spirit craves action. That "force cannot act without matter" is a truth that holds good everywhere. It must be thrown in the spirit land, with all sorts of good ideas, and so away to work them out.

That's why the Asiatic idea of heaven, paved with precious stones, no mention of flowers, green grass or fountains, is a description that fills the active mind with horror.

Tea trillion years of doing nothing would be too long, even if that would be the first minute of eternity.

America produced 43,000 automobiles in August, 1928. The country needs about 60,000 new cars every year. Four hundred and fifty thousand every month would be about right now, more later.

Scientists, gathered at Glasgow, are told that millions of years ago Europe and North America were united. Mountain chains prove it, and the geology of Europe and America prove it.

That's interesting, but the important thing is the fact that Europe and America are now divided by 2000 miles of ocean. And the job is to keep them apart, except in friendly relations.

George Washington never heard about the old time, but he wanted to keep them apart, wanted an antagonistic attitude, and that's what sensible America now does.

Don Francisco Plombrino is appointed by Mussolini governor of Rome. He is a prince and has many other names. The appointment is understood to be a reward for excellent relations between Mussolini and the Pope.

Rome's new governor comes of an ancient family that has supplied two Popes to the church, including Gregory XIII, to whom the world owes the Gregorian calendar.

Our energetic neighbor, Colombia, will build a highway to the city of Cali to Buenaventura, on the Pacific coast. Americans will send the $6,000,000 for that and other public works in the friendly republic.

Uncle Sam isn't such a bad neighbor.

with the murder of Mary Mahan of South Boston, was begun today by police in connection with what is thought to have been a daring and carefully worked out plot for the escape of prisoners in Salem and Dorchester jails.

The search was started following the escape of four prisoners from Salem, when it was learned by the police that the machine seen in the year of Dorchester jail while Joseph
J. Hope was making his unsuccessful break for freedom, was registered in the name of Ralph Tartar.

Judge Joseph C. Hannan, associate justice of the Waltham District Court, was arrested by Boston police today, charged with the larceny of $32,777.

The money is alleged to have been stolen from two estates, for one of which he was administrator and of the other trustee.

Judge Hannan, who lives with his wife and three children at 10 North ave., Waltham, was taken into custody by Inspectors Wilson and McCarthy following a search of the Federal estate of

TUNNEY ORATES ON 'SMILE OF FRANCE'

Paris, Sept. 11 (AP)—Gene Tunney qualified today as a defense orator. For 15 minutes by the clock he quipped, parried and pointed with the bluntest edge of big King's English. He expressed satisfaction that he was to become a privilege. Tunney addressed 300 members of the American Club assembled at a luncheon at the Champs Elysees restaurant. He said: "Economic security was my reason for taking professional pugilistic career. This having been achieved, I have resigned. French opinion may be divided concerning the American's claim to come as the greatest boxer in the world, but no one here challenges his qualifications as the greatest orator that the prize ring ever knew. "The smile is the soul of France," Tunney began amid an inexpressible silence. "In 1918, when I first came here, France, with disaster stacked her in the face, kept her smile. It was a sad smile, but the eyes were bright. Even though the spirit was low, France is smiling today. Although the atmosphere is different, the hum is sane. "Gene stepped out as an apostle of peace. He evoked the Kellogg-Briand pact for the renunciation of war, but added: "If France set again faces the calamities of war—which God forbid—the number of American volunteers who will come to the assistance of this country, will surpass even the fondest friends of France. "The retired champion made a great hit with his expatriated countrymen in Paris. On every hand after the luncheon, was heard the comment: "He is a fine, clean man. He serves to win."

BETROTHAL ANNOUNCED

MISS ELISABETH OAKES

Whose engagement to Sydney Jones Colford, Jr., wealthy New York and Newport society man, was announced today from Newport. The wedding will take place next Friday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Oakes, No. 278 Warren st., Brookline.

JOHN COOLIDGE IN 'WORK' CLASS

By BERT FORD
New Haven, Sept. 11—John Coolidge began his business career "on his own" today, and was 15 minutes early on the job. Rushing hurriedly through a heavy coat of tan, the son of the President arrived at the general headquarters of the New Haven Railroad and reported on duty at 8:20 a. m. "President Coolidge's day" was just another day in the railroad machinery as he started, just another clerk in the office of General Manager J. A. Drew. Chief Clerk Wilson to his "boss" and from Wipperf young John took his first orders and instructions, seated at a flat-top, table-like desk, checking correspondence and other clerical data. John's department—the office of the "big boss"—is a strictly gag section of the railroad headquarters, practically the only one in which no girls are employed.

FACES CAMERA MEN.
But scores and scores of girls found occasion to be in or near the general manager's office during the morning hours in order to catch a glimpse of the "fellow" Florence Trumbull is going to marry. "Do you see him?" asked a pretty blonde girl of her companion. "A perfect close-up," was the response. "He's a little taller and than I expected, tall and thin and light hair and curly and smiling. And traced entirely in blue," broke in the blonde. "Piercing blue suit, blue shirt and collar and every hair, a soft grey felt hat and a dark grey bow tie, and an arm. Regular college type and looks good. Please turn to Page 8, Column 6."

MISS OAKES TO WED COLFORD NEXT FRIDAY

From Newport, R. I., where the season is fast slipping into history, came announcement today of the engagement of Miss Elisabeth Oakes of Brookline to Sydney Jones Colford, Jr., wealthy New York and Newport society man. The announcement was made by the Boston and Brookline society girls' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Oakes. The father is a member of the Brookline park commission. With the engagement announcement it was announced also that the wedding will take place next Friday at "noon," the Colford estate at 273 Warren st., Brookline. Colford has been married twice before and is father of two children, both in their teens. His second wife was the late Mrs. Kathleen Nelson Vanderbilt Colford, first wife of the late Reginald C. Vanderbilt. She died year in Paris. Colford's first wife was Clara W. K. Knight of Philadelphia, mother of the two Colford children, Dorothy Knight Colford, who is now abroad, and a younger sister, Clara Leitch Colford, who is with the father at Newport. The first wife, in December, 1919, divorced Colford, a former French ambulance driver and U. S. Marine, after eight years of the war. Colford is 42 years old, but his intended bride is considerably younger. Following the wedding, on Friday, the couple will leave Brookline for New York and first will for Europe and a six months' tour of the continent. The first wife of the bride is in Newport in early spring.

BUSWELLS WILL TAKE TWO MONTHS HONEY-MOON ABROAD, SAYS BETTY ALDEN

Owner of Gloucester's Little Theater and Miss Mary Armstrong Robinson to Be Married Today

GOING A HONEYMOONING IN ENGLAND ARE Leslie Buswell and the future Mrs. Buswell, who until late afternoon still Miss Mary Armstrong Robinson, Gloucester's young scientist turned little theater promoter takes unto himself a wife today and tomorrow sails away with her for England. Country house visits with this or that relative will occupy the major portion of two months or more before the Buswells return to their Gloucester hilltop and its perfectly appointed manor house named "Stillington" in remembrance of the family's English home.

WHEN THE LUNE DE MIEL SHALL HAVE run its romantic course and Mr. Buswell brings his bride home it will be to find the Gloucester Stillington a perfect whole. Even before the first enormous beam and the first rustic foundation stone went into their allotted places two or three years ago the Buswell plan and vision had run ahead to this perfection. And now, as wedding bells ring and good wishes sound for the newweds, workmen do their day's prosaic labors, among piers and beams, and the guest house, last unit of the Stillington pattern, becomes a fact. On its rock ledge foundation it sits facing the sea. Next, spanned by an enormous stone arch, is the studio and "offices," then the bell tower and the cloister.

MARVELOUS IT IS THAT ANCIENT MOSGROW'S mellowness and air of many ages, such as come only with the passing years, can so envelop stones and beams put together some two or three years ago. It is perhaps Mr. Buswell's magic touch that imparts so legend old an atmosphere. At any rate it touches all of Stillington. The manor house has it. So has the hall. The cloister and the bell tower, the "offices" and the studio, each have it. Now the guest house, final piece in the Stillington pattern, comes into being as antique as the others, though it had stood there many centuries on its iron-growth, ocean-looking hilltop.

ALL THE NORTH SHORE, THE ELECT THAT flock to Stillington plays and sponsors the musicals, are keenly alert to the interesting alliance of Miss Robinson and Mr. Buswell. The bride of today is the ethereal sort to look entrancing in antique and tulle of bridal tradition. Her sisters, Miss Betty Robinson and Mrs. Thomas A. Robinson, and little Jane Robinson, her niece, are a trio of attendants. Neighboring the wedding group cannot be enormous, since St. John's Episcopal Church is not of cathedral proportions. And Mr. Buswell's encouragement is inspiring, both as to numbers and personalities. Some dozen or so formally-attired ushers do the honors.

THE DEBUTANTE PYROTECHNICS CONTINUE TO ILLUMINE the sky, even though September is hardly settled down on the calendar and the "season" is really not started at all. Miss Sally White is being held in the preliminary way of a small dance at the Essex Country Club. This evening the just-out and the just-about-to-be-out on grow-up formality to dance and dine in honor of the debutante Miss Lorna Livermore, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harris Livermore, and a young set, heavily, who is being given a dinner, at Miss Jane Fowling's, the Henry Fowling's daughter. Trust the still young set to set a quick tempo for the early season and accelerate it gaily later.

ONE PRETTY BIRD SUBTRACTED FROM THIS WINTER'S possible debutante set is Miss Laetitia Orlandini, daughter of the Vittorio Orlandini. This pretty girl has sailed for Europe, to add to gifts and grace already possessed a further job only to be imparted by school abroad, so parents believe. Miss Orlandini, when she does come out, a year or two hence, appears destined for a huge success, socially and personally, having all the attributes that give a girl belle-dom in her first season.

THE ORLANDO ROULANDS ARE MAKING THEIR USUAL LONG season at "Lookout Court" in Marblehead, loath to forego that export town's quaint aspects for metropolitan existence. Some very interesting guests and some important subjects have found their way to Mr. Rouland's studio at the Court. Early pine woodwork, old church pews turned into oaks for the interior decoration, and a true Early American atmosphere make the Marblehead workshop exactly the opposite of Mr. Rouland's New York studio done in the Spanish way of tapestries, mahogany furniture and a spellous quiet museum-like in its proportions.

ROUGHING IT ON A WYOMING RANCH, WHICH ISN'T REALLY roughing it at all, but living in a certain degree of comfortable modern luxury, is occupying the attention of the Oliver Wolcotts this autumn. They left the North Shore a few days ago for the Western country of mountains and ponies, and frost will be in the air before they are back in this vicinity again. Probably to Mr. Wolcott like a Westerner ways will be reminiscent, in one or two aspects, of existence in the army in France back in the war years, when he did vaillant service.

COOLIDGE GOES TO VERMONT IN FEW DAYS

Ahead the President's Special en route to Washington, Sept. 11—Three months of vacation behind him, President Coolidge was on his way back to Washington today, Wednesday morning will find him back at his desk.

Whitcomb said goodbye to the executive in the early hours of the morning as the special train rolled along on its way to Glenview, where the switch was made to the eastern road that ultimately will bring him back to the National Capital.

The President may in Washington will be comparatively brief, for within a week or so he will have to go to journey to Vermont and there revisit the scenes of his boyhood days at Plymouth. This trip probably will not last longer than a week, however, before he gets back to his office.

No particular problems await Mr. Coolidge upon his return. The fact he is stepping out of office next March has done much to relieve the strain of official business and leave him for the most part only with the usual routine.

MAINE G. O. P. WINS BY 79,488

MAJORITY FOR TALE, 78,872

tion of 1924 Congress carried the State by a plurality of 79,488 over Lewis and by a majority of 8,000 over the combined vote of LaRoche and LaRoche.

The 44 winning county precincts may increase Gardner's majority to 80,000, as he has taken only 215 of that figure.

"Tremendous" was his statement. With 44 precincts missing out of the 423 in the main the vote was:

For Governor: William F. Gardner (R), 244,542; Edward C. Munn, Jr. (D), 64,754.

For Senator: Frederick Hale (R), 141,523; Herbert H. Hall (D), 42,467.

LOSERS IN LEWISTON
Gardner, the Republican candidate for Governor, won the State as was anticipated. He carried every county in the State and piled up big majorities in every city except in Biddeford and Lewiston, both of which are normally Democratic by wide margins.

Governor-elect Gardner is a Harvard graduate and a World War veteran. At college he was active in athletics, football and rowing being his favorite sports. He is a law partner of Congressman John B. Nelson of the Third Maine district. Nelson, a candidate for re-election, was a winner in a handsome majority in his district. Congressman Carroll L. Beedy in the First district, Congressman Walter H. White, Jr. in the Second district and Donald W. Brewster in the Fourth district, all Republicans, are elected by large margins.

FIGHT IN VAIN
The Democrats waged their strongest fight in the second district where their gubernatorial and senatorial candidates both reside. Their efforts, however, were without result.

The congressional vote, as tabulated early today, follows:

First District (4 precincts missing): Beedy, (R) 35,231; Spillane, (D) 15,430.

Second District (4 precincts missing): White, (R) 35,551; Bellevue, (D) 15,349.

Third District (4 precincts missing): Nelson, (R) 35,570; Ward, (D) 15,434.

Fourth District (4 precincts missing): Shaw, (D) 25,765; Stevens, (R) 10,733.

LIGHT VOTE
Contrary to predictions of a heavy vote freely made during the campaign, the total vote was less than 45,000 less than that cast for Governor in 1924, the last presidential election year, when Brewster, Republican, defeated Rutledge, Democrat, by a majority of 24,425. In the last State election they cast 800 the total vote was 141,524 and the Republican majority for Governor was 20,000.

Four years ago the Democrats carried five cities for Governor—Bangor, Hallowell, Lewiston, Old Town and Waterville—and one city, Androscoggin, yesterday. Biddeford, Democrat in 1924 by a vote of 1035, remained in the Democratic column 2941 to 1341. Lewiston was one of the few places in the State to show an increase in its total vote, the Democrats carrying it 1924 by a vote of 517 to 2038 and yesterday 517 to 2038. It is the home city of Congressman White.

Portland, with a vote of 20,000, showed a total Republican vote within 300 of that cast four years ago with the Democrats losing by 3500. Bangor's Democratic margin of 822 votes in 1924

"NO MATTER WHAT IT COMES IN—GET IT!"

In days of old, when votes were sold,
North, South, East and West;
The elephant's election choice
Most often was the best.
He knew the tricks of politics,
And how the world was done;
He had the biggest bag of snags,
And so of course he won.

The donkey knew but very few
High-sounding millinery terms;
The campaign chest that he possessed
Contained no coin of theirs.

The bids for old he sadly made
Resulted in a frost;
And so, despite his dog and hope,
He almost always lost.

The tiger now had taught him how
To shake his business down;
He'd after funds from plunderers,
In every scolding town.

As is the elephant's,
And so he shyly wins and thinks
That he has got a chance.

Androscoggin, the county in which the vote was the closest, returned a Republican majority of 2152 as compared with a Democratic majority of 290 in 1924.

error ever received before," Chairman Hoover said the following:

"The voters of Maine have demonstrated that they still favor Republican rule and lead the way to a great victory in November by giving their State candidate the enormous majority of 79,000."

Moses Sees White's Election as Real Test
Concord, N. H., Sept. 11 (AP)—Victory in the second Maine congressional district, where Congressman William H. White, Jr., Republican, defeated Albert Bellevue, Democrat, by a 2-1 vote was looked up as the most significant result of the election.

Although the Democratic chiefs were a bit astounded by the size of the Republican majority, they explained that Maine is traditionally a strong Republican State and has long been one of the foremost politically dry commonwealths.

The sweeping G. O. P. victory in Maine was hailed with intense satisfaction at the Republican State committee headquarters in Boston today.

Francis Prescott, State chairman, said:

"It was in the fight against Congressman White that the opposition noticed the error of their ways."

Dancing Daughters

WINIFRED VAN DUZER

Story of Modern Marriages and Husband Hunters

From the Screen Version by Josephine Lovett CHAPTER 12

LURED BY Anna's wealthiness, Benny Black paid a tentative, rather insulting call at two at the apartment hotel, study upon study of the house and preparation which preceded each visit.

For Hanna was determined that nothing should be left undone in making sure of what she saw as the best of her chances for one comfortable living and position. Accordingly she bribed a maid to open the sitting room of an unoccupied suite adjoining their apartment and if this was rather late of the house look, at least it permitted Anna and herself to receive the visitor in privacy. Furthermore she could—and did—explain that they were temporary residents here, being apart for the night out of home.

Upon each occasion she managed the adoring mother attitude, the pressing about the young man, the playful scornful look in calling upon her "Baby girl" and demonstrating how lovely without any suspicion of the manner in which young men can win in a graceful age. Also she acted herself to prepare him, leaving Anna and the visitor alone together for a rather long time.

It occurred to Benny that the ease of the second call and the should offer something of hospitality in return and he invited her to stay at the apartment hotel.

On the following Sunday evening Hanna accepted for them both. She was so sure that she had discovered the perfect man for her daughter that she was so sure—and sent the "child" out alone. Anna, however, and apparently excited as a child at a first party, Benny vaguely remembered an admiring and attentive host.

The two lingered a long time over the table and finally the orchestra ended the evening. Benny examined concert and swung into dance music. She was so sure that she had discovered the perfect man for her daughter that she was so sure—and sent the "child" out alone. Anna, however, and apparently excited as a child at a first party, Benny vaguely remembered an admiring and attentive host.

5 INJURED IN GALE ON HUB SHIP

Mayport, Fla., Sept. 11 (AP)—A pilot boat braved high seas off the coast to take a physician to the U. S. Shipping Board steamer Lake Ingleside, aboard which five men were suffering from injuries received during a gale.

Dr. Robert Wynn, Jacksonville marine physician, who was used to meet the vessel at a hour of Mayport because seas were running too high for a landing, returned here. He said all of the injured were suffering from lacerations, two of them apparently having broken bones.

Although seas were too high to land the men ashore, the physician and Capt. Richard Peck of Mayport, a pilot, risked the journey and the doctor gave first aid.

The Lake Ingleside is a tugboat of 120 tons, and pilot cutter between Gulf ports and Boston. She had been battling foul weather for several days.

MOTORIST RISKS LIFE FOR CHILD

Risking his own life to save that of a 5-year-old girl, Carl M. Leary, 30, of 111 Gallin st., Watertown, drove his automobile through a fence of the bridge between East Boston and Winthrop today, leaping from the car just as the front wheels went over the edge.

The quick action by Leary saved little Dora Strand of Rutledge rd., Hyde Park, from the wheels of the car.

Leary was visiting relatives in Main st., Winthrop, and on across the street at the bridge and on Leary approached. He slowed down and the girl was clear when, to his horror, she became confused, turned and ran back again. Then she stumbled and fell.

Leary pulled his wheel over hard, the car crashed up over the side walk, tore through the fence and lunged over the edge above the water as he jumped.

The little girl suffered a few cuts from her fall.

Crabmeat Saves Man From Charge of Drunken Driving

The crabmeat market soared today when it became known William H. Crego's bulky stomach had gained him sympathy on a drunken driving charge.

Crego, who lives in Harvard st., was found guilty in East Cambridge court, but was fined $5 for speeding. An Arlington officer who arrested Crego said he staggered and his breath hot as he drove.

Crego testified he had eaten crabmeat and it had made him ill.

"I can understand how crabmeat might upset a man's stomach," said Judge Wakoff, and dismissed the charge.

RADIO FANS TO SEE AND HEAR ACTORS TODAY

Schenectady, N. Y., Sept. 11 (INS)—After weeks of careful preparation, the General Electric Company, through its radio station WGY, this afternoon planned to broadcast a drama by television.

Radio fans who have the new television sets are not only to see the drama, but to hear the actors. The actors have carefully rehearsed the drama, and will appear before the television set and send out their voices but their images through the air.

The play, "The Queen's Menace," was scheduled to be broadcast at 8 P. M. An Associated Press expert for the General Electric Co. was in charge of the demonstration.

He was one of the first to experiment in the television field. Previous television has been limited to the broadcasting of a few minutes of a play.

Politics Must Be Dirty Game, Gene Tunney Says So

Paris, Sept. 11 (AP)—Fighting puts it all over literature as a means of making money, Gene Tunney, retired heavyweight champion, told 400 members of the American Club at a luncheon this afternoon.

"If I had written a book directly after the war I would have starved. I became a fighter for what was in it. Now I have all the ring could give me. I am through with it. A good man can weather any dirty game. Take politics for example. President Coolidge weathered that."

Boxing officials in Boston are making plans for the opening of the Boston Madison Square Garden about the middle of November.

Richard declared that the Cup-Ephron Test of the American Legion has been given the right to stage its first boxing show at the New Garden. He said that the fight would be a very good one with any kind of fair fight.

HARRISON JOHNSTON GEORGE VOIGHT
Johnston and Voight were the only two out of the field of stellar fighters seeking Bobb's national amateur crown at Horse Barn who broke par on the opening day. Both shot 71 for 18 holes. Par for the course is 72.

The STYLE Stork Presents "TWINS"

You Can't Tell Them Apart

I paid $10 for the original of this hat at retail and produced its exact "Style-Twin" for $3.50. The block and flange are the same, and the measurements of crown and brim are identical.

Crown 5 1/2 in., Brim 2 1/4 in., Welt 1/2 in., Band 2 3/4 in.

"Twins of the Most Expensive Styles Seen in the Most Exclusive Shops"

My Style Policy
To make a "Style Twin" of every exclusive Style Leader shown in high price shops in London, Paris or U. S. A.
Every new high price style introduced for $8, $10, $12 or more, is Public Property just as soon as it is shown in a window, or sold in a store. My Policy is to buy the hat and duplicate the style exactly for $3.50.
I have asked all our managers in every city in U. S. A. where we have a store, to send me by air, wire or mail any new high price style they want reproduced for $3.50.

As Far As Style Goes
When you remove the Price-tags, Trademarks, Hallmarks and Emblems, they are "Style-Twins"—you can't tell them apart.
Some people think that if they pay more money they get more Style, but I challenge anyone to look at any crowd of well dressed men and tell what they paid for their hats.
My customers don't want a "Style-Twin" for $3.50. They want a $10 style for $3.50. That's why I'm reproducing high price styles for $3.50.

As Far As Quality Goes
I've got more than a million satisfied customers and I know I can satisfy you.
As a matter of fact, I don't believe anybody has any trouble about the wear of a good hat. The trouble is, it isn't half worn out when it isn't fit to wear.
The worst looking hats you see on the street at the beginning of the season are last year's high price hats that the owners are trying to wear out their money's worth.

YES, you are you and I am I,
or so the thoughtless say; but while the changing seasons fly and change day by day, my another years: old loves and hopes no longer come, but faith is gone.

old fears, yet, strangely, though the restless tide of hunger and desire of living, at times one gets the sense of a though we let them go, through careless chance, unknown, a-
